If this Order is issued under a Government prime contract, any provision in this Order that is: (i) incorporated in full text or by reference from the Federal Acquisition Regulations (FAR); and/or (ii) incorporated in full text or by reference from any agency regulation that implements or supplements the FAR; and/or (iii) that is substantially based on any such agency regulation or FAR provision, shall be construed and interpreted according to the U.S. federal common law of government contracts as enunciated and applied by U.S. federal judicial bodies, boards of contract appeals, and quasi-judicial agencies of the U.S. Government. By accepting this Purchase Order, Seller represents that it has and will continue to comply with the provisions of all applicable Federal, State, and Local laws and regulations. The parties agree that the state courts of the state of Maryland and the federal courts of the state of Maryland shall have jurisdiction over them and this agreement, and that Maryland is the appropriate place of venue of any litigation arising out of or in connection with this Purchase Order, and that all such litigation shall, to the extent possible, be in Maryland.

3. DELIVERY:

Time is of the essence on this contract, and if Seller anticipates or encounters difficulty in the delivery of items, rendering of services, or any other requirements of this Purchase Order, including but not limited to documentation by the time promised, the Seller shall notify Buyer immediately of the circumstances and all relevant information pertaining to the delay. Buyer reserves the right without liability in addition to its other rights and remedies to terminate this Purchase Order by notice effective by Seller as to items not yet shipped or services not yet rendered, and to purchase substitute items or services elsewhere and charge the Seller with any loss incurred.

- (a) Shipment. Delivery shall be FOB Origin. Deliveries shall be strictly in accordance with Buyer's delivery schedule, and time is of the essence for this Order.

In the event of any anticipated or actual delay, including but not limited to delays attributed to labor disputes, Seller shall: (i) promptly notify Buyer in writing of the reasons for the delay and the actions being taken to overcome or minimize the delay; (ii) provide Buyer with a written recovery schedule; and (iii) if requested by Buyer, ship via air or other expedited routing, at no additional cost to Buyer, to avoid or minimize delay to the maximum extent possible.
- (c) Early Shipments/Over-shipments. Except for the purchase of materials and/or components which may be done in a manner to ensure economic efficiency and non-stop production, Seller shall not make product commitments or production arrangements in excess of the amount or in advance of the time necessary to meet Buyer's delivery schedule; however, Seller is authorized to ship up to fifteen (5) days in advance of Buyer's delivery schedule. Early shipments or excess quantities may be returned at Seller's risk and expense at the full invoice price plus transportation charges or alternate arrangements agreed upon.
- (d) Unless otherwise specified on the Purchase order, "Due Date" represents delivery at specified "ship to" address.

If in order to comply with the Buyer's required delivery date it necessary for Seller to ship by a more expensive way than specified in this Purchase Order, any increased transportation costs resulting therefrom shall be paid for by Seller unless the necessity for such rerouting or expedited handling has been caused solely and exclusively by the Buyer.

4. PACKAGING:

All supplies provided under this Purchase Order shall be suitably prepared and packed for shipment so as to assure safe delivery, the lowest transportation rates, and to meet carrier's requirements unless otherwise stipulated in the Purchase Order. Packaging shall be done in a manner that does not hinder the ability to expeditiously inspect, integrate into inventory, and/or count product. Buyer reserves the right to request changes to packaging methodology to facilitate the above. No charge shall be allowed for packing, crating, or carriage unless stated in the Purchase Order. Each container shall be clearly marked to show Buyer's Purchase Order Number. A packing sheet showing Purchase Order Number and number of packages must be included in each container or single unit of shipment, or with each truckload shipment. Buyer's count and weight shall prevail relative to any shipment discrepancies. Seller shall mark containers or packages with any necessary lifting, loading or other handling instructions.

In the event that Seller's goods or services hereunder require or contemplate performance of services by Seller's employees, or persons under contract to Seller, to be done on Buyer's property, or property of Buyer's customers, the Seller agrees that all such work shall be done as an independent contractor and that the persons doing such work shall not be considered employees of the Buyer. Seller shall maintain all necessary insurance coverage's, including general and product liability and Workers' Compensation insurance. Seller shall indemnify and hold harmless and defend Buyer from any and all claims or liabilities arising out of the work covered by this paragraph.

6. PROPRIETARY INFORMATION-CONFIDENTIALITY- ADVERTISING:

Seller shall consider all information furnished by Buyer to be confidential and shall not disclose any such information to any other person, or use such information itself for any purpose other than performing this contract, unless Seller obtains written permission from Buyer to do so. This paragraph shall apply to drawings, photos, specifications, and other documents prepared by Buyer for Purchase in connection with this Purchase Order. Seller shall not advertise or publish the fact that Buyer has contracted to purchase goods from Seller, nor shall any information relating to the Purchase Order be disclosed without Buyer's written permission.

7. PROTECTION OF PROPRIETARY INFORMATION.

Any information identified as confidential or proprietary that is provided by one party to the other party (hereinafter referred to as "Proprietary Information") shall remain the property of the disclosing party. The disclosure of data shall not be construed as granting expressly or by implication, estoppel, or otherwise a license, title, or other right to the receiving party under any idea, invention, know how, patent, trademark, or copyright or any other proprietary information now or hereinafter owned or controlled by the furnishing party and/or owned or controlled by any third party. Each party agrees to comply with all proprietary information markings and restrictive legends applied by the other party to such Proprietary Information. Oral or visual information shall be identified as proprietary at the time of disclosure and so confirmed in writing within ten (10) days. Proprietary information shall be held in confidence until five (5) years after the completion or termination of this Order.

Each party agrees to use Proprietary Information only for the purpose of performing under this Order and agrees not to disclose such information to third parties or affiliates without the prior written consent of the disclosing party. Each party shall disclose Proprietary Information only to its employees and suppliers having a "need to know" and shall ensure that each such employee is aware of this clause and has agreed to abide by its provisions.

Each party agrees that it will protect and maintain the confidence of Proprietary Information using the same degree of care it uses to protect its own proprietary information, but in no event less than a reasonable degree of care. Neither party shall copy or reproduce any Proprietary Information without the prior written consent of the disclosing party. The receiving party shall, upon request of the disclosing party promptly return all drawings and specifications and other furnished Proprietary Information

Notwithstanding the foregoing, this Order does not restrict disclosure or use of any information which would otherwise be considered "Proprietary Information" if the receiving party can demonstrate: (i) the information is published or generally known by the public (other than as a result of the breach of this section); (ii) the information was known by it at the time of disclosure as evidenced by competent proof; (iii) the information has become lawfully available to the receiving party from a third party without restriction on disclosure; (iv) the disclosing party approved in writing the public release by the receiving party; or (v) the information was developed or discovered by the receiving party without access to or use of any Proprietary Information provided by the disclosing party; or, (vi) the protection period has expired.

If the receiving party becomes aware of any compromise of information provided by the other party, its officers, employees, agents, suppliers, or subcontractors (an "Incident"), that party will take appropriate immediate action to investigate and contain the Incident and any associated risks, including prompt notification to the disclosing party as soon as possible after learning of the Incident. Each party will additionally provide its reasonable cooperation in any investigation regarding the nature and scope of any Incident. Any costs that may be incurred for remedial actions caused by an Incident shall be borne by receiving party.

The parties agree that, in the event of a breach or threatened breach of its obligations under this clause, the disclosing party may be irreparably harmed such that monetary damages alone will not adequately compensate for its injuries. In the event of any such breach or threatened breach, the disclosing party shall be entitled, in addition to any rights or remedies it may have at law or in equity, to temporary and permanent injunctive relief, without posting bond or other security, issued by any court of competent jurisdiction enjoining and restraining the receiving party from continuing such breach and the payment by the receiving party of all costs associated with any related litigation, including attorneys' fees.

Neither Party makes any representation regarding the use, accuracy or sufficiency of the Proprietary Information.

THERE ARE NO WARRANTIES, WHETHER WRITTEN OR ORAL, EXPRESS, IMPLIED, STATUTORY, OR OTHERWISE,

INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, THE IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF MERCHANTABILITY AND FITNESS FOR A

PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR USE AND WARRANTIES ARISING FROM COURSE OF PERFORMANCE, DEALING, USAGE OR TRADE, ALL OF WHICH ARE EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMED, EVEN IF THE DISCLOSING PARTY HAS BEEN MADE AWARE OF THE PURPOSE; WARRANTIES AGAINST INFRINGEMENT OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS OF THIRD PARTIES ARE EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMED EVEN IF THE DISCLOSING PARTY HAS BEEN ADVISED OF ANY SUCH INFRINGEMENT.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, Seller reserves the right to restrict rights and access to, or delivery of, certain information including, but not necessarily limited to: Financial Records and Manufacturing and Process Instructions, whether or not actually used in performance of any resulting agreement between the parties. In the event that any audit of Seller's records is required by law or regulation, only duly authorized representatives of the United States Government will be permitted access to any proprietary information of Seller, financial or otherwise. In the event that any obligations related to proprietary information set forth on the face of this Order or within a duly signed non-disclosure agreement between Buyer and Seller are inconsistent with the provisions set forth herein, the obligations set forth on the face of this Order or within such non-disclosure agreement shall govern the parties' obligations.

8. PATENTS AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS:

Seller agrees upon receipt of notification to promptly assume full responsibility for defense of any suit or proceeding which may be brought against Buyer or its agents, customers, or other vendors for alleged patent infringement, as well as for any alleged unfair competition resulting from similarity in design, trademark, or appearance of goods or services provided hereunder, and Seller further agrees to indemnify Buyer, its agents and customers against any and all expenses, losses, royalties, profits and damages including court costs and attorneys' fees resulting from any such suit or proceeding, including any settlement. Buyer may be represented by and actively participate through its own counsel in any such suit proceeding if it so desires, and the costs of such representation shall be paid by Seller.

9. IDEMNIFICATION:

Seller shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Buyer against all damages, claims or liabilities and expenses

(including attorney's fees) arising out of or resulting in any way from any defect in the goods and/or services purchased hereunder, or from any act or omission of Seller, its agents, employees or subcontractors. This indemnification shall be in addition to the warranty obligations of the Seller.

10. CHANGES:

Buyer shall have the right at any time to make changes in drawings, designs, specification, materials, packaging, time and place of delivery and method of transportation. If any such changes cause an increase or decrease in the cost, or the time required for the performance, an equitable adjustment shall be made and this agreement shall be modified in writing accordingly. Seller agrees to accept any such changes subject to this paragraph. . Only Buyer's Procurement Representative has authority to make changes in, to amend, or to modify this ORDER on behalf of

BUYER. Such changes, amendments or modifications must be in writing and signed by BUYER'S Procurement Representative. Buyer may at any time by a written order, and, without notice to sureties, if any, make changes within the general scope of this Order, in any one or more of the following:

- Drawings, designs or specifications;

- Place of delivery;

AND- if this Order includes services:

- A description of services to be performed;
- Time of performance (e.g. hours of the day, days of the week, etc.); and

If any such change causes an increase or decrease in the cost and/or the time required for performance of this Order, Buyer and Seller shall negotiate an equitable adjustment in the price or schedule, or both, to reflect the increase or decrease. Buyer shall modify this Order in writing accordingly. Seller shall immediately comply with such direction at the current contract unit prices for minor changes (such as changes in quantity of less than 10% or small technical requirement changes that do not require redesign or purchase of new components) pending any equitable adjustment, if any, but Seller shall not be required to perform any other additional scope without prior agreement on price..

11. APPROVALS:

Wherever this Order provides for submittal of designs, components, or other items for approval of Buyer, such approvals shall not be construed as Buyer's agreement as to the adequacy of said design, component, or item, nor as an agreement or acknowledgment that the design, component, or item shall meet the requirements of this Order. Such approvals are solely for the purpose of insuring Buyer's knowledge of Seller's plans and progress and shall indicate only that Seller's general approach towards meeting requirements under this Order is satisfactory. Such approvals shall in no way relieve Seller of its responsibility for any error or deficiency which may exist in the submitted design, component, or other item, as Seller shall be responsible for meeting all the requirements of this Order.

12. ADMINISTRATION:

(a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Order or any document referenced herein, Buyer's Procurement Representative and the Seller's Contracts Representative have the sole authority to make contractual commitments on behalf of Buyer/Seller, to provide/receive contractual direction, and to change contractual requirements as defined in this Order. Buyer or Seller's program management, engineering, and technical personnel and other representatives may from time to time render assistance or give technical advice or discuss or effect an exchange of information with the other party concerning the Products hereunder. HOWEVER, ONLY BUYER'S PROCUREMENT REPRESENTATIVE AND SELLER'S CONTRACTS REPRESENTATIVE SHALL HAVE THE AUTHORITY TO DIRECT/AUTHORIZE OR BIND ITS RESPECTIVE PARTY WITH RESPECT TO CHANGES OR MODIFICATIONS TO THIS ORDER.

(b) Whenever Seller believes it has received direction from personnel other than the Procurement Representative, Seller shall promptly confirm the direction with the Procurement Representative if Seller believes that the direction might constitute a change or modification to any requirement of this contract, including its delivery terms, schedule or specifications. Seller shall not implement any changes or modifications to this contract (including contract specifications and quality control provisions) without first having received written authorization to do so from the Procurement Representative.

(c) Where Buyer approval of any kind is required under the terms of this Order, only the written approval of Buyer's Procurement Representative shall satisfy this requirement.

13. INSPECTION/TESTING:

Payment for the goods delivered hereunder shall not constitute acceptance thereof. Buyer shall have the right to inspect such goods and to reject any or all of said goods, which are in the Buyer's judgment defective or nonconforming. All Products, including raw materials and components, and Seller's and its subcontractors' manufacturing facilities shall be subject to inspection and test by Buyer, Buyer's Customer and/or the Government if this Order is issued under a U.S. Government prime contract, to the extent practicable at all times and places. The exercise of the right of inspection and test, however, shall in no way relieve Seller of its obligation to furnish all Products in strict accordance with this Order. If inspection and test are made on the premises of Seller or any subcontractor of Seller, Seller or such subcontractor shall furnish, without additional charge, all reasonable facilities and assistance for the safe and convenient inspection and test required. All inspection tests shall be performed in such manner as not to cause delay.

Goods rejected and goods supplied in excess of quantities called for herein may be returned to Seller at its expense and, in addition to Buyer's other rights. Buyer may charge Seller all expenses of unpacking, examining, repacking and reshipping such goods. In the event Buyer receives goods whose defects or nonconformities are not apparent on examination, Buyer reserve the right to require replacement, as well as payment of damages. Nothing contained in this Purchase Order shall relieve in any way Seller from the obligation of testing, inspection and quality control.

An itemized invoice must be sent promptly to Buyer's Accounting Department for Products delivered and accepted as herein provided. Seller shall issue a separate original invoice for each delivery of Products that shall include Buyer's Order number and line item number. Delays in receiving invoices shall be considered just cause for withholding payment without losing any discount privilege. Payment terms are net thirty (30) days unless otherwise provided on the face of this Order. Each payment made shall be subject to reduction to the extent of amounts which are found by Buyer not to have been properly payable, and shall also be subject to reduction for overpayments. Except as otherwise provided in this Order, no payment for extras shall be made unless such extras and the price have been authorized by Buyer's Procurement Representative.

15. WARRANTY:

Seller expressly warrants that all goods or services furnished under this agreement shall conform to all specifications and appropriate standards, will be new, and will be free from defects in material or workmanship. Seller warrants that all such goods or services will conform to any statements made of the containers or labels or advertisements for such goods or services, and that any goods will be adequately contained, packaged, marked and labeled. Seller warrants that all goods or services furnished hereunder will be merchantable, and will be safe and appropriate for the purpose for which goods or services of that kind are normally used. If Seller knows or has reason to know the particular purpose for which Buyer intends to use the goods or services, Seller warrants that such goods or services will be fit for such particular purpose. Seller warrants that goods or services furnished will conform in all respects to sample. Inspection, test, acceptance or use of the goods or services furnished hereunder shall not affect the Seller's obligation under this warranty, and such warranties shall survive inspection, test, acceptance and use. Seller's warranty shall run to Buyer, its successors, assigns and customers, and users of products sold by Buyer. Seller agrees to replace or correct defects of any goods or services not conforming to the foregoing warranty promptly, without expense to Buyer, when notified of such nonconformity by Buyer, provided Buyer elects to provide Seller with the opportunity to do so. In the event of failure of Seller to correct defects in or replace nonconforming goods or services promptly, Buyer, after reasonable notice to Seller, may make such corrections or replace such goods and services and charge Seller for the cost incurred by Buyer in doing so. Seller warrants that the prices for the articles sold to Buyer hereunder are not less favorable than those currently extended to any other customer for the same or similar articles in similar quantities. In the event Seller reduces its price for such article during the term of this contract, Seller agrees to reduce the prices hereof correspondingly. Seller warrants that prices shown on this Purchase Order shall be complete, and no additional charges of any type shall be added without Buyer's express written consent. Such additional charges include, but are not limited to, shipping, packaging, labeling, customs duties, taxes, storage, insurance, boxing and crating.

23. GRATUITIES AND KICKBACKS:

No money, fee, commission, credit, gift, gratuity, thing of value, or compensation of any kind shall be offered or given to any employee of the Buyer with the intention of securing favorable treatment as a supplier. By accepting this Purchase Order, Seller certifies and represents that it has not made or solicited and will not make or solicit kickbacks in violation of the Anti-Kickback Act of 1986 (41 USC 51-58). Failure of Seller to honor this commitment may, at Buyer's option, result in immediate termination of the Order in accordance with Clause 16, Termination for Default, without provision for cure. Buyer's further expectation is that Seller will have (or will develop) and adhere to a code of ethical standards. If Seller has cause to believe that Buyer or any employee or agent of Buyer has behaved improperly or unethically in connection with this Order, Seller shall report such behavior to the CEO of Matech Solutions, Inc.

24. FORCE MAJEURE.

The party affected by the Force Majeure shall give prompt written notice thereof and, upon cessation of the Force Majeure, take all reasonable steps to resume compliance with its obligations. If Seller's failure is caused by the failure of a subcontractor of Seller, at any tier, to perform or make progress, and if such failure arises out of causes beyond the reasonable control of both, and if such failure is without the fault or negligence of either, Seller shall not be deemed to be in default or liable for additional costs, unless the Products or services to be furnished by the subcontractor were obtainable from other sources in sufficient time to permit Seller to meet the required delivery schedules, the Buyer directed the Seller in writing to purchase these supplies or services from the other source and the Seller failed to comply reasonably with this direction. If a force majeure event occurs, the delivery schedule shall be revised. Notwithstanding the above, if such delays extend Seller's delivery or performance date by more than ninety (90) days, Buyer may terminate such part of this Order remaining to be performed. In the event of such termination, the rights and obligations of the parties shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Clause 32 Termination for Convenience herein.
